REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to show or fairly suggest an electronic game table and a system for playing an electronic card game as set forth in independent claims 1, 19 and 21. Specifically, the game table as set forth in claim 1 comprises a table frame, a plurality of individual player terminals arranged in the table with a terminal display and data input means; a central processing unit connected to each of the individual player terminals for bidirectional data exchange with each of said individual player terminals, the central processing unit configured to cause the display of confidential cards on each of the terminal displays; and a common display in a position visible to the at least two players and connected to the central processing unit; the central processing unit containing a random combination generator. Further, the system as set forth in claims 19 and 21 comprises a table having a plurality of player positions; a player display associated with each player position for presenting virtual cards to a player such that the display of the virtual cards is obscured from other player positions; and input mechanism associated with each player positions; a central display positioned in the table that is visible from each player position; and a CPU for dealing virtual cards to the player displays and community display and causing the respective displays to present the cards to the corresponding player, and receiving input from the input mechanism related to the presented cards.
